

CACS organized Rangeelo Raas Garba Dandiya'15 in MNIT on 27th September 2015. This event was organised for the first time in MNIT where more than 1000 students had arrived to play dandiya and garba.

The students had a gala time as they danced to the traditional music of Gujarat and the event was very well recieved.

For the event we also had a dandiya stick seller who visited our college regularly and we also had a person to supply the traditional dresses on rent to the students.

The organizing team had also put up a photobooth which was taken care by the photography and film society, also the decorations of the day were done by the fine arts society.

The students enjoyed a lot during the event and the event was a huge success.
